

FUCKING MODERATES

HATE, KILL BURN

HATE, KILL BURN

turning with our worms

because we did it to ourselves it can't be stopped and we've seen it coming for a long, long time just like the Bible says too late to stop

we need the juice to wash our clothes and hell,

COOK

(and I can't wait to get my bro's

THANKS JOHN!

2001 Jeep Cherokee with 66,000 original miles--better than book) that gets really really really good mileage so I'm doing MY BEST to cure GLOBAL WARMING but I need to get down to the PANTRY for beer and ice cream on my own safely somehow

'cause now I give ice cream and beer to wonderful neighbors, who'll drive me on request

(thanks ladies--I know you'd do it free)

'cause I lost my license and that's over

TWO MILES, otherwise I'd have to:

1) Ride my bike; maybe get hit by a car, especially one driven by some one who's impaired

2) Walk . . .

BUT MY TIME is much more valuable

spent

watching videos and texting my "friends"

'bitchin' y'all!

so what won World War II--AMERICAN OIL--has cost us the Earth, long gone, WAY too late--fuck fallout-- realize now all children are damned; fusion reactors my ass . . .

see there's not enough money in the world--AND THAT'S THE PROBLEM-- to fix it (or save us, either)

FUCKING MODERATES, business as usual!

hunker down, babes

'cause it won't take long now-- though I wanna live as long as I can and watch it happen, see

I promised my savior

I'd do that to honor her (she's BLACK) so if I'm still alive, after the fall somehow
I'll party with my last friends on my last night LIGHT A PARAFFIN CANDLE to show the way and walk anywhere I still can, not look back please Lord
(She doesn't look like you) let me do that, huh?
resigned, so much more than Lao Tzu was (sorry, couldn't help myself, hope I get the car; I'll post a pic to my home page!)
