

Royal We

Knowing I isn't we
is easy
just so we all agree “we” isn't me or ye

Everything because of this, though I agree with some they agree with me (or tell me they do)

Who do you want to be?
why so often I'll call myself “We”
or write about him in the third person which I hear isn't so good Especially

on my website
yep, HTTP
a colon, whack, whack muscomm.com with 4 ems, see

There collusion, I'll plead with artists
perpetually
although I have need
occasionally
to explain to myself
just exactly
our feelings
and post this activity
online, myself
using “we” while pretending this isn't even nosism

So, live well, thou and thee someday we may all be free and I'll use a nominative plural pronoun here, which is hiding the key:

it seems
surrounded by artists
the only one doing any fucking work around here sometimes
is just me!
